KANNUR UNIVERSITY

Syllabus

For

Three Year under Graduate Programme -ARABIC

As per FYUGP pattern

Under Private Registration

(Effective from 2024 admission)

This syllabus has been specifically designed for the Double Major Pathway in Arabic and Islamic History under the Private Registration stream of Kannur University. It follows the structure of the Four-Year Undergraduate

Programme (FYUGP) and offers a three-year degree program tailored to meet the unique needs of private registration students while upholding the academic standards and rigour of the regular syllabus.

For the Arabic major, the syllabus has been thoughtfully adapted to ensure accessibility for private learners, preserving the depth and quality of the regular curriculum. It provides a comprehensive framework that integrates foundational and advanced aspects of Arabic while also accommodating the flexible learning requirements of non-regular students.

This program aims to equip students with a deep understanding of the Arabic language, literature, and culture. It seeks to foster critical thinking, linguistic competence, and an appreciation for the literary and cultural heritage associated with Arabic. By doing so, the program ensures students are prepared for both academic progression and professional opportunities in diverse fields.

The development of this syllabus reflects Kannur University's commitment to inclusivity and educational accessibility. Special attention has been given by the Board of Studies in Urdu to align the syllabus with the aspirations of private registration students, creating a pathway for holistic learning and academic excellence.

We are confident that this program will inspire students to explore the richness of Arabic literature and culture while providing them with the tools to achieve their academic and professional goals.

Dr ISMAIL PK

Chairman,

Board of Studies Arabic

Kannur University.
